

Introductory "Ribbon Skirt Workshop" with Roxanne Tootoosis
Candidate in Master of Psychotherapy and Spirituality, St. Stephen's College, U of A Campus

kâmiyowâpikwanît brt d · ∧b· b' Blossoming Flower

Not just a pretty skirt!

With a desire to help our Indigenous women, Roxanne recognized the need to improve the services to the Indigenous women the Lois Hole Hospital for Women she served between 2004 - 2012. Collaboratively with the Faculty of Nursing, University of Alberta and the Lois Hole Hospital for Women, Roxanne pursues her graduate studies on a part-time basis to address these needs

Her ribbon skirt teachings evolved from this endeavor.

There are many teachings that accompany the creation of a beautiful ribbon skirt. Roxanne shares this journey and the sacred knowledge that accompanies:

- Origin of the ribbon skirt
- Spiritual significance as to why we wear ribbon skirts
- Provide guidance in the construction of ribbon skirts!

Presently, Roxanne works full-time as the Indigenous Knowledge Keeper/Facilitator for the kihêw waciston Indigenous Centre, MacEwan University in Edmonton.

Cost: Fabric, ribbons, supplies and sewing machine $75/per person

Date: Saturdays, March 23 & 30 and April 27 (t-dresses)

Time: 12 noon - 5 pm

Location: Grow Centre Co-working and Teaching Space

Basement, 10516 - 82 Avenue by Chapters

For more information or bookings, contact:

Roxanne Tootoosis tootoosi@ualberta.ca Telephone: (780) 668-3268, cell