

About Our Speaker

Born and raised in Edmonton, the Rev. Dr. Scott Sharman received his Master's in Religion from Wycliffe College at the University of Toronto in 2006, and his Doctorate in Historical Theology from the University of St. Michael's College Toronto in 2014. His research interests and expertise are in the history and methodologies of the 20th and 21st century ecumenical movement.

Ordained deacon in 2010 and presbyter in 2013, he served for five years as an Interfaith Chaplain at the University of Alberta. For the past four years, he has been a member of the faculty at Newman Theological College, teaching courses in Church History, Ecumenism, and World Religions.

His primary ministry is coordinating the Anglican Church of Canada's ecumenical partnerships at the national level, including bilateral dialogues and commissions with the Evangelical Lutheran, Mennonite, United, and Roman Catholic traditions, as well as working closely with the twenty-six Christian denominations which are members of the multilateral coalition known as the Canadian Council of Churches. He also represents the Anglican Church of Canada in the interfaith context, especially in the areas of Christian-Muslim and Christian-Jewish relations.

Scott is married to Alexandra Meek, who is also an Anglican priest serving in Edmonton. Together they have three children aged 9, 6, and 1.
