We Are All Treaty People: A Practice of Good Relations
with Dr. Patricia Makokis and Dr. Davina Rousell

Saturday, October 26, 2019
9am-12pm
St. Albert United Church (SAUC)
20 Green Grove Drive
St. Albert, AB

SAUC invites you to watch the 50 minute film at treatytalk.com prior to coming.
Everyone Welcome

“We invite you to join us to discuss what a practice of good relations means in the context of historical and contemporary Indigenous and settler relations and how we can move forward together. Our discussion will focus on the importance of Treaties, how we are all Treaty people, and what it means to be in solidarity with Indigenous peoples. We will also discuss the unique roles and responsibilities that churches have in putting the Truth and Reconciliation’s Calls to Action (58-61) into meaningful and sustained action.”

Patricia Makokis, Ed.D. is acclaimed as one of Canada’s most outstanding Aboriginal leaders. She is an author, speaker and a pioneer for Aboriginal education, health and values. Patricia is the recipient of innumerable awards for her exceptional work in advancing opportunities for her people.

Davina Rousell, PhD is a community-based researcher and non-Indigenous ally who is committed to building meaningful relationships that bring people together to better understand how we can work in a good way to identify solutions that redress root causes of oppression.
