

Pathways to Recovery

A public conversation on

Harm Reduction and Abstinence

November 19, 2019 from 6-9 pm

Beth Israel Synagogue; 131 Wolf Willow Rd, Edmonton

In this public conversation we seek to build a shared understanding of:

1. MAPs and MOPS (Managed Alcohol and Managed Opioid programs)
2. What is working to support people on their roads to recovery.
3. The pillar of Housing First and the need for Permanent supportive housing.
4. The need for wrap around community supports and care.

Keynote address will be provided by Karen Bruno

Karen is a Cree woman from Treaty 6 Territory. As a lived experience and professional experience person, she is known for her advocacy and networking skills. She has had over 27 years to help influence, communicate on community and social issues. Also known for her creative thinking and problem solving ability.

Karen currently works as a site manager in transitional housing that focuses on a Harm reduction and Trauma informed practice with a hard to house population.

Will also feature table conversations sharing the perspectives of people with lived experience of homelessness and addictions, and a panel of professionals working from both Harm Reduction and Abstinence based approaches.

To register, please visit:

www.interfaithhousing.ca, or RSVP to mike@interfaithhousing.ca

Attendance is free to all participants with dinner and childcare provided

This event organized and facilitated by:

