

Breaking New Ground

Treaty Rights and the Indian Act

NOVEMBER 23, 2019: 10 AM - 3 PM

COST: $40

Hearing from both an Indigenous and church perspective, we will explore the history and meaning of the Treaties, the implications of the Indian Act and the possibilities of new foundations for relationship with country, land, and peoples.

Facilitators:

Harry Lafond comes from and lives on Muskeg Lake Cree Nation in Treaty 6 Territory. Harry served as the chief of Muskeg Lake for 10 years.

Archbishop Emeritus Sylvain Lavoie is a missionary Oblate who has spent over 30 years ministering among the aboriginal peoples of north and central Saskatchewan..
