

THE CANADIAN COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

“Together in One Place” (Acts 2:1)

AN ONLINE ECUMENICAL PRAYER SERVICE
FOR PENTECOST

MAY 30, 2020 | 3 PM EDT | VIA ZOOM

Amid the unique challenges and opportunities of this year’s COVID-19 pandemic, the CCC is hosting an online ecumenical Pentecost prayer service that will allow us to “come together in one place” (Acts 2:1) in ecumenical friendship and prayer.

The season of Pentecost has always held a special significance for the ecumenical movement. With it comes the promise of new life through the arrival of the Holy Spirit, and a reminder of the unity we share, which has been forged with God’s help across differences.

Leaders of CCC member churches from coast to coast to coast will gather with us as we look together to an uncertain yet hope-filled future.

Prayers, Scripture readings and reflections will be offered in English and French.
