These are the days of grief and fear.
These are the days for stories.

When collapse threatened,
our biblical ancestors told stories:
stories shaped by possibility,
stories nourished by faithful love, stories rooted in visionary hope.

Together we will delve deeply into the stories of catastrophe and hope in the Bible,
with our ears open
for the voice of lament
and our hearts open to new life.

Sundays
7pm-9pm EST
March 6, 13, 20, 27, April 3, 10, 2022*
via Zoom

*recordings will be available for those unable to attend all classes.
