

Save the Date!
Day: Sept 24th Sunday
Time: 12:00 noon
Place: St Paul's United Church
11526-76 Avenue

Walking from:
St. Paul's United Church
To:
kihcihkaw askî Sacred Earth
Ceremonial Site

We will be meeting at church at 12:00 PM, Lewis Cardinal will give a brief introduction and then he will lead our walk to the kihcihkaw askî (pronounced key-chee-cow-ask-ee) site. The site is just off the Whitemud Ravine near Fort Edmonton Park; the walk will be along the river valley and takes approximately one hour. We encourage anyone not walking to drive there and meet us (parking available at the site at 14141 Fox Drive NW).

BYO Lunch. People can eat during the introductory talk, during the walk, or afterwards on site.

Note that coffee & tea & some refreshments will be available on site.

Dress in walking clothes and shoes and in weather-appropriate clothes.

Rides back to St Paul's from kihcihkaw askî can be arranged - we need to know who needs them!

Contact Shirley Perry 825 439 7960 stbperry@shaw.ca
so she can arrange transportation back

Please spread the news in your community for anyone who would like to join us !