MEET THE AUTHORS

Join Argentine Imanirakunda and Dawn Hurley as they share about their book, The Place Between Our Fears

The Place Between Our Fears tells the true story of an American woman and two Congolese friends on a decade-long journey, from eastern Congo, through refugee camps, to a place they never imagined, the small town of Athabasca, Alberta.

This story will carry you on a journey around the globe and then bring you back home, to celebrate the power of faith and community beyond all our differences. Come join us!

Learn about the role the Anglican Diocese of Edmonton played in helping to bring them to Canada through its refugee sponsorship program.
