

As Christians, we are called to be faithful disciples in following Christ. But what does faithful following mean when we find ourselves in leadership, particularly as lay people?

Join us for a highly engaging, funny, humble, and inspiring weekend with leadership researcher and lay leadership advocate Clara King. As we explore the dynamic tension between leadership and discipleship, you will discover new insights in the pages of Scripture, reflect on your church context in new ways, and hear God's invitation to you with a new heart.

Whether you think of yourself as a leader or as a follower, all are welcome.

Reflection Sessions

Session I - Peter, Who Didn't Get It (but Jesus loved him anyway)

Session II - How Jesus Loves Us Anyway (although we sometimes/often don't get it)

Session III - What Happened When Peter Got It (and Jesus' invitation to us to do likewise)
