

FYREFLY INSTITUTE

Becoming Conscious Allies An introduction to Sexual and Gender Diversity and Inclusion

Join us to become a conscious ally to the 2SLGBTQ+ folks in your community. Learn about pronouns, what they mean and how to use them, as well as other 2SLGBTQ+ terminology. Explore the foundations of gender identity, gender expression and sex assigned at birth. Analyze frequently made assumptions and myths about the 2SLGBTQIA+ community and develop practical tools for supporting queer and trans folks, including available resources.

Date: April 28, 2026 Time: 2-4 pm. Cost: FREE

Location: Leduc Civic Centre

Star Oldring (they/them) is the Rural Program Coordinator at the Fyrefly Institute, a not for profit research institute housed within the Faculty of Education at the University of Alberta. The Fyrefly institute offers evidence and advocacy in celebration and support of 2SLGBTQ+ communities in northern Alberta. Star is a settler descended, genderqueer, trans, lifelong resident of Alberta. Their advocacy is rooted in decolonial allyship and the joy of participating in communities where everyone belongs and thrives together.
